

Angel's Tears

When I go to bed in the evening
I think about you
When I dream of you
I can smell your perfume
When I wake in the morning
I rejoice fond memories of us
How time has passed
It's been over 10 years since I saw your face
Since I left Hotel Beverly Hills and my soul behind

I want to sing a love song
To stop you from crying
I want to catch the Angel's tears
And taste them in my blood
When you finally lay in my arms
You've found the lover you've been looking for

How can I explain the reason I left?
For I'm not a saint or a devil
For I didn't want to break your heart
For all those time I sat next to the window
Watching your golden hair glow
For all those time I sang love songs for you
You breathe in that golden voice
And it sank deep in your soul

Today, I want to sing a love song
To stop you from crying
I want to catch the Angel's tears
And taste them in my blood
When you finally lay in my arms
You've found the lover you've been looking for

Angel don't cry for me now I'm gone
It's only a temporary kind
You know in your heart I'll be back someday
That day couldn't come soon
Please wipe off your tears
For I've been writing a book for all these time
About you and me, and the journey I endured
I stroke the keyboard till midnight, till my fingers bleed
It'll be Tequila Sunrise soon

For now, I want to sing a love song
To stop you from crying
I want to catch the Angel's tears
And taste them in my blood
When you finally lay in my arms
You've found the lover you've been looking for

And when you finally lay in my arms
You've found the lover you've been looking for
