

L.A.'s Rose

Goodbye L.A.'s Rose
Though I never knew you at all
You were the grace to be behold
While those around you watched
They plotted out their plans
And they whispered from dawn to dusk
Even though I gave it all
The lies brought out the tears

And it seems to me you lived your life
Like an eternal flame
Glowing brighter with the sunset
When the rain set in
And I would have liked to have known you
But they said I have two kids
Your flame left the Chamber long before
Your legend ever did

Loveliness we've lost
These empty days without your smile
This torch we'll always carry
For L.A.'s golden child
Even after I die
You will be the Angel to comfort my soul
All my words cannot express
The joy you brought me through the year

And it seems to me you lived your life
Like an eternal flame
Never fading with the sunset
When the rain set in
And I would have liked to have known you
But they said I have two kids
Your flame left the Chamber long before
Your legend ever did

Goodbye L.A.'s Rose
These empty days without your smile
This torch we'll always carry
For L.A.'s golden child

Goodbye L.A.'s Rose
From a grown man in the 22nd row
Who sees you as more than a beauty queen
More than just our Marilyn Monroe

And it seems to me you've lived your life
Like an eternal flame
Never fading with the sunset when the rain set in
And I would have liked to have known you
But they said I have two kids
Your flame left the Chamber long before
Your legend ever did

Your flame left the Chamber long before
Your legend ever did
